

MEMBER SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION

The SRBX Members Scholarship Program is a member benefit which supports member firms and their immediate families in their pursuit of continuing education.

Candidates must apply directly through the Sacramento Regional Builders Exchange (SRBX).

Candidates considered will be based on their grades, extracurricular activities, any employment experience and financial need.

The SRBX Scholarship can be used to pursue undergraduate or post graduate degree in any field. A construction emphasis is not required.

ELIGIBILITY

Member firms of the Sacramento Regional Builders' Exchange, including employees and their immediate families are eligible to apply.

Candidate must be a graduating senior currently enrolled in a high school; or an approved construction related trade or craft training school; or in either a community or four-year college,

Candidates must have a current cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. If the student is enrolled in an Industrial Technology Training program, the student must have a recommendation from an instructor.

REQUESTED DOCUMENTS

- Cover letter, which should include information on the student's career path and/or education direction.
